

Gonorrhoea

Cause:

bacteria

Symptoms:

There may be a thick green or yellow discharge from the vagina or penis. There can be pain when urinating.

How It Is Transmitted:

Passed from one person to another during sexual contact.

Treatment and Prevention:

Treatment is either a single antibiotic injection or a single antibiotic tablet. A person should avoid all sexual contact until they have had a follow up test and have been given the all clear.

